

The Cardozo Law May-Entry Program Gives You More Time To Thrive.

The first year of law school is crucial.

Cardozo Law's May-Entry Program will provide you with more time to complete the rigorous 1L year (Summer, Fall, Spring) yet keep you on track to receive your J.D. in three years.

Join us for a virtual Information Session with 3L Matthew Cannon, who began his law school journey through Cardozo's May-Entry Program.

Friday, January 13th, 2023
1:00 pm - 1:30 pm

To learn more about Cardozo Law and its May-Entry Program and how you can set yourself up to succeed academically at Cardozo School of Law:

Register Here

Matthew Cannon, Cardozo Class of 2023

Staff Editor, Cardozo Law Review; Heyman Scholar; Public Service Scholar; Human Rights Atrocity Prevention Clinic; Treasurer, Student Bar Association, Cardozo NLG Executive Board; SEC Investor Advocacy Roundtable Presenter

The May-Entry Program consists of these daytime classes:

Summer Semester Credits (10)

Contracts (5)
Criminal Law or Constitutional Law (3)
Elements of Law (2)

Fall Semester Credits (10)

Civil Procedure (5)
Torts (4)
Lawyering Skills and Legal Writing I (1)

Spring Semester Credits (10)

Property (5)
Criminal Law or Constitutional Law (3)
Lawyering Skills and Legal Writing II (2)

May Entry Students:

- Spread out the first-year curriculum over three semesters: Summer, Fall and Spring.
- Learn from the same renowned faculty as students who start in the Fall.
- Take Fall and Spring 1L courses with Fall-entry students.
- Automatically merge with the traditional full-time program in their second year and graduate with Fall-entry students in three years.
- Benefit from the student-run May Mentors programs.
- Enjoy the same opportunities to participate in clinics, journals and internships.

"As someone who worked for a few years before law school, the May-Entry Program provided additional time to reacquaint myself with an educational environment and set myself up for success as a law student. The May-Entry Program allowed me to build a strong social circle, meet professors, and become familiar with the Cardozo community ahead of the Fall semester. I would recommend it to anyone considering it."

Grayson Moronta '22

"The May-Entry Program was a no-brainer for me. The smaller class size provided an intimate setting for me to acclimate to this new chapter of my life and gain the confidence I needed to ask questions and speak my mind. I have never regretted my decision of applying to the May-Entry Program and it may have been one of the best decisions I made during my time at Cardozo."

Rebecca Grossberg '21

Make it Here. Make It Cardozo.

Contact an admissions counselor via email at lawinfo@yu.edu or call 212-790-0274.