

Economics

Study Abroad in Vienna

Experience a memorable fall or spring in Vienna!

ECON partnership with Vienna (pre-articulated courses)

Make significant progress toward your Economics degree

Take additional courses in Business and other areas of interest

Receive academic credit for GER 101 (Beginning German) &

GER 205 (Austria & Europe~ Gen Ed Humanities & Western)

On-site ILLINOIS staff to assist students before, during, and after Incredible cultural offerings: Music, Museums, Sports, Theater, Food,...

Scholarships Available: May be cheaper than studying on-campus!

Fall: early September – mid January | Spring: mid January – late June

Visit: <http://go.economics.illinois.edu/ViennaStudyAbroad>

All Econ Trips: www.economics.illinois.edu/undergrad/students/abroad/

LAS ECONOMICS
International
PROGRAMS

Questions About Program?

Melissa Newell (ECON)

menewell@illinois.edu

Kelly White (LAS Abroad)

kcwhite2@Illinois.edu

Alexandra Pözlbauer (Vienna)

Alexandra.Poelzbauer@wu.ac.at

ECON Course Examples
(Including ILLINOIS Credit):

Economic Fiscal Policy (ECON 200-level)
Money and the Business Cycle (ECON 200-level)
Applied Microeconomics (ECON 302)
European Economic Integration (ECON 300-level)
US & EU Financial Systems (ECON 300-level)
Monetary Policy in the US & EU (ECON 300-level)
Select Topics: Development Econ (ECON 300-level)
Econometrics I (ECON 300-level)
Econometrics II (ECON 400-level)
Advanced Microeconomics (ECON 400-level)
Advanced Macroeconomics (ECON 400-level)
Applied Econometrics (ECON 400-level)
International Economics (ECON 420)

Other Course Examples
(Including ILLINOIS Credit)*:

Analysis/Decision Making in Marketing (BADM 320)
Conquering Global Markets (BADM 382)
Global Consumer Behavior (BADM 325)
International Management (BADM 381)
Language of Financial Management (FIN 221)
Financial Integration (FIN 300-level)
Financial Risk Management (FIN 400-level)
Foreign Exchange Risk (FIN 400-level)
Applied Asset Management (FIN 400-level)
Computational Corporate Finance (FIN 400-level)
Applied Mathematical Statistics B (STAT 400)

BUS Courses abroad don't count towards Business Minor*

May be used in Supporting Coursework for ECON*

Additional Articulated Courses: <http://illinois.edu/cms/6929/viennacourses.pdf>

Class availability varies each semester. Availability of classes more limited for students not staying entire semester.

Discuss degree requirements with an ECON Academic Advisor prior to leaving.

Amazing Experiences Both Semesters!

Historic walk "700 hundred years of history in two hours" through the first district of Vienna

Guided tours and experiential learning; Hiking/City Tours; Museums

Events Throughout, including Welcome & Departure Dinners

ILLINOIS On-Site Director Support

Fall Semester

- Idyllic hike on the Kahlenberg
- Guided tour in and around the Naschmarkt
- Boating exploration of the Alte Donau
- Hike on the Raxalpe
- Long Night of the Museums
- Christmas Markets
- Viennese Balls
- And Much More: City Bike tour of Vienna, first concert, tree-planting festival "Wald der Jungen WienerInnen", Voicemania opening concert, Stammtisch, Winetasting at the Gasthaus zur Dankbarkeit in Podersdorf at the Neusiedlersee, Stammtisch, Weihnachtsmarkt concert; Skiing

Fall semester typically extends into late January, but ILLINOIS students are able to complete everything and return prior to the start of the Spring semester (long breaks)

Spring Semester

- Week long ski trip prior to the semester (optional with additional costs)~ Receive KIN credit
- Easter Markets
- Table Tennis Tournament
- Free Open-Air Concerts
 - Festival of Joy Konzert der Wiener Symphoniker at the Heldenplatz
 - Opening Wiener Festwochen at the Rathausplatz
 - Summer night's concert of the Wiener Philharmoniker in Schönbrunn
 - Danube island festival (Donauinselfest)

Semester continues into late June, so students should plan on staying entire semester. Those able to stay entire semester given priority for attending; those leaving early have fewer course options.