New courses for fall 2018:

EXPLORING ARTS AND CREATIVITY

FAA 110  63086  C   4:00-5:20pm  M   40 Allen

High and street art, tradition and experimentation, the familiar and unfamiliar, international and American creativity provide this course’s foundation. Students will attend performances and exhibitions, interact with artists, and examine core issues associated with the creative process in our increasingly complex global society. Faculty from the arts, sciences, humanities, and other domains will lead students through visual arts, music, dance, and theatre experiences at Krannert Center and Krannert Art Museum to spark investigation and dialogue. The class meets twice per week: once at Allen Hall and a second time to attend performances or exhibits at KCPA or Krannert Art Museum. Event dates will vary. Admission to all events will be provided without charge to students enrolled in the course.

3 hours credit. This course satisfies the General Education Criteria in Fall 2018 for: Humanities – Lit & Arts

Grand Challenge Learning courses:

Grand Challenge Learning was designed to rejuvenate general education and inspire new investment for students in the value of broad knowledge and engaged citizenship. Grand Challenge Learning covers topics of interest to students that defy single-discipline thinking and conveys the material in a way that encourages students to be more active learners.

All courses restricted to students with freshman and sophomore standing.

See front of schedule for courses, days and times.

GCL 124 and GCL 126 are taught at Lincoln Avenue Residence Hall
GCL 143, GCL 146 AND GCL 186 are taught at Pennsylvania Ave. Residence Hall

At Unit One/Allen Hall:

SEXUALITY AND LITERATURE

GCL 195  70850  B   3:00-4:15pm  TR  40 Allen

Often we think of ‘sex’ and ‘sexuality’ as phenomena that have remained more or less the same over time and are the same all over the world. In this seminar, we challenge this view by looking at the historical contexts in which sexuality has been debated during the past three centuries, and we investigate to what extent sexuality is perceived differently in diverse cultures. Our thinking about sexuality is, in other words, very much part of the culture in which we grow up. We are in particular interested in the different forms of (in)equality shaped by discourses about sexuality. On the one hand, the history of sexuality is shaped by a modern call for equality – the right of every individual to experience sexuality in her/his/their own way. On the other hand, sexuality is often associated with practices that express major inequalities among (groups of) humans. Includes 5 bi-weekly film screenings.

Restricted to students with freshman or sophomore standing. 3 credit hours.

This course satisfies the General Education Criteria in Fall 2018 for:
Cultural Studies - Western/Comparative Cultures
